

Villa Antonia provided a picturesque setting for Trinity's first service.

Welcome Trinity Anglican Church!

November 8 saw the birth of a new orthodox Anglican parish in the Austin, Texas area. Under the leadership of its pastor, the Rev. Dale Chrisman, Trinity Anglican Church of Lago Vista held its inaugural service in its temporary home at the chapel of Villa Antonia, an Italianate villa on a hillside overlooking Lake Travis and the Hill Country.

There were 74 in attendance with another 22 either calling or emailing Fr. Dale to tell him they were committed to be a part of this new work but were out of town or sick. The Altar Guild did a marvelous job, lots of hands helped set everything up, and joy and a sense of freedom permeated everything. The Holy Spirit moved in powerful ways and everyone sensed something special was happening. Even the 11 children during Dale's children's sermon were excited—they knew they were part of something special.
